Titz Naws.--The President has sent in a special mesango to Congress, in substance approving, though in language consuring, the conduct of Com. Paulding in breaking up the Piratical Expedition of Fillibuster Walker. The Message was florcely attacked by Southern and Northern Democrats and defended by Republicans. Mr. Buchanan, like Mr. Douglas, stands in immicent danger of boing read out of the " National Democratic Party," for not " going it blind" in favor of Slavery-extension.

Mr. Goods, Republican, has been elected to Congress, as successor to Mr. Banks, (now Govornor of Massachusetts) by a heavy majority. 5 Government is proparing to dispatch larges reinforcements to our troops in Utah, at the earliest opening of Spring. The latest reports discredit the rumor of the massurers of U. S. troops, though there is no doubt that the Mormons will oppose their advance in every possible way. The Scuate, by the close vote of 23 to 25, have confirmed the appointment of Theo. Sadgwick, as District Attorney of New York, in place

Your coedicut servant,

SAMUEL D. HASTINGS. State Treasurer.

The law being as above quoted, the State Trea surer has no alternative but to require payment of State taxes in "gold and silver." It bas however, been the practice, under his predecessors, to receive currency, as well as coin, in payment of these taxes; and thus custom has, in a measure, sanctioned what the law forbade. The State Journal suggests that the difficulty may be obviated if the Legislature will, immediately attor it convoice, pass an act authorizing the Treasurer to receive the notes of Wisconsin Banks as well as "gold and silver." Of the $124,224, transferred by the late to the present Treesurer. $122,055 was in "Wisconsin Currency," and only $2,166 la coin.

REPUBLICAN TRIUMPH IN PITTEBURG,-The Charter Election in Pittsburg came off on Tuesday, the 5th inst. The Republicans made t cloan sweep, electing Weaver Mayor, over Mayne, Dem., by 1,286 majority, and four-fifths of the Council. The Buchaniers expected to steal a march, and win an easy victory, but they got badly beaten.

WELL MERITED CONFLIMENT.-At a special election for Police Justice of the City of Water. town, held on the 5th instant, J. A. HADLEY, one of the "old settlers," for a long time editor, publisher and printer-of the Watertown Chronicle, and a good fellow every way, received 337 votes to 7 "scattering," and was thus, "unaulmously" in fact, elected to this responsible post. The people of Watertown did a sensible thing in making such a selection.

Sixquan Dearn .- Samuel King, of Rising Sun, Indiana, told his wife one morning last week he should not live till night, and wished to settle his affairs. Shortly after he laid down and died, from no apparent cause but the mortification caused by his pecuniary troubles, his creditors basing come from New York and closed his store on account of debts contracted by his partner, as Mr. King alleged.

Battlewith the Mormons - U.S. Troops Defeated-Horrible Murder-Officers Hung, etc. Under the above heading, the St. Joseph Mo. Journal, of the 20th ult., has the following piece of intelligence:

"We were yesterday infoamed that a gentle-man passed through this city, with dispatches to Fort Leavenworth, who reported that our troops had come in collision with a large body of Mormon, and that a flures conflict ensued in which our mon were defeated, with a loss of over two hundred killed and a number taken prisoners.— He also reported that the wrotches murdered in cold blood, all the soldlers, and hung all the officers that fell into their hands, declaring, at the time, that it was near of extermination, and that for every drop of Mormon blood that was shed, the Gantiles' should flow like water. We hope sincerly, that the report may be exaggerated."

The St. Joseph Gazette notices the report, and adds that the detachment thus shughtered was Col Cock's command, which while restrict from Col. Cook's command, which, while passing from Ham's Fork to Fort Bridger, was surrounded by a superior force of Mormons, and after a short resistance, captured and butchored.

This is the same story, referred to in our telegraphic disputches yesterday. We are still inprodulous as to its truth. Ed. Sentines.

Horace Greecey's Champagne. - Nick Naz talls the following story of Hon. Horace Greely, the distinguished journalist:

Horaco Groeley's acquaintance with the names of wices is hardly more exact than his knowledge of their natures, and consequently he once made a very ludicrous mistake by writing! "drinking their Heldsieck and Champagne." Of course all the Tribune corps noticed the error next morning, and Dana, Ottarson, Cengdon, and perhaps aven Ripley, Snow, Hildreth, and Wilbour gathered around him when he came ice, and joked him on his vinces tautology. Horace listened until he comprehended with tolerable exactness the nature of his error, when the lines about his mouth began to curve a little, and there was a little shining in his serious eyes as he said, "Did I? Did I say that? Well, I guess I'm the only Tribune editor that would make a mistake of thet kind." The laugh was against them, and the wide hutted corps soon beat a retreat. relates the following, which is a fair illustration of the "legitimate swindling," or sharp practice, carried to a great extent by many of the stock brokers of the great metropolis. Another exchange copies the article and hopes " that it has no application in other cities:"

" Many persons innocently suppose that the quotations of the auction sales between the boards, at the exchange, are a reliable test of the value of the stocks or bonds sold. That they are to be received, with a 'little grain of ullowance,' the following transactions of last week will show:—Five different sales of shares in a certain company, not assail of sames in a certain company, not assail sold at the board, were reported as made at auction, at figures much below the current value of the clock. The officers of the company certily that not a single share of stock has been transferred, but single share of stock has been transferred, but a contain the matter by the fact that certain parties were operating to buy up shares at a low rate. By paying the expense of a few sales at anotton, bidding in the stock at a low rate, in the absence of purchasers in these tight times, they make their own figures for the value of the stock. Another 'dadys' resorted to by parties, through the medium of the stock auctions, should be fully understood by the public. Mr. Jones is making an exchange with Mr. Smith. Jones wishes to buy Smith's farm or house. He offers Smith stock in the 'Eull Blown and Dead Beat Coal Co.' Smith is ignorant of the value of the stock, but will make inquiries—mean of the stock, but will make inquiries-meanwhile, Jones can well afford to pay a commission to the auctioneer for selling some of the stock, which is sold at a good round figure—Jones seller. Jones dummy bisyer. The operation repeated two or three times at a trilling loss, another three to the second trade with cost, enables Jones to drive a good trade with Smith, if Smith is not thoroughly posted up. The objections sometimes made to the quotations of the brokers board will apply with equal force to the sales at anction."

MILWAUKEE:

SATURDAY MORNING, JAN'Y 9.

Doctors will Differ. The News of yesterday, closes a long article laudatory of its own and Mr. Buchausn's consistent democracy, in reference to Kansas, with the following comprehensive endersument: Thus for we have nothing in the conduct of condomn, but on the other the President, to condemn, but on the other hand find abundant proof of his wisdom and pa nand and abundant proof of his windom and patriotism, in all that he has done, recommended or suggested for the quieting of the turbulence and distraction of bleeding Kausas."

Per centra, Ex-Speaker Hore, one of the bright lights of our Wisconsin Democracy, in the last number of his Washington County organ, utters his dieta on this question, and among them, the following: "The attempt made by the Administration and isderal office holders and expectants to repudiate the great principle of self-government, as said down in the Nebraska act, when the opparent professions of these very principles had car-ried them into office, can be called by no milder name than base and dishonorable, and a chomattempted to be practiced upon the people who clovated thum.

The Sponker is a plain spoken man, and does not mince matters. It is quite clear that he and our Postmaster look at this Kannas question through very different spectacles. Far be it from us to interfere between two such well-

falsely denounced by the pensioned letter-writers

"Douglas was talking to Hale, Wilson, Cox, Burlingame and some ethors, when Hale told him: "I can answer that question of yours, Douglas. I was in the Domocratic party long enough to know that while its members are allowed the largest liberty on everything else, yet, if you don't too the mark on niggors, you are not regular and orthodox, and have to be turned over with the goats on the left hand." I noticed a frown on the lace of a Domocratic Senator near by, as the little group, Douglas included, took a hearty laugh over Mr. Hale's comical statement of what is really a "fixed fact."

Editorial Change.

J. A. HARRIS, Esq., for the past twenty years the senior aditor and proprietor of the Cleveland Herald, announces in Saturday's issue his retirement from the concern. Mr. HARRIS has been one of the most successful members of the profession and his absence is to be regretted. The Herald says: "The length of time Mr. II. has been connected with this paper, and his voluntary withdrawal after so long service, is the abundant success which has attended the entorprize. It must be to him a matter of pride that from a sheet of limited circulation, of straight-oned resources, and meagre profits, it has, under his hand, reached its present/position of extended influence, of broad credit, and of generous returns to its propeletors." He is to be succeeded by Mr. Benedict, late his efficient associate, under whose management the Merald, no doubt, will, maintain its stand as an excellent newspaper. best proof of his ability as an editor, and of the and an able championtol Republican principles!

A REMARKABLE MAYOR.—Mayor Rice, of Boston, vacates his office at noon Monday, and the papers of that city are loud in extelling his praises. He has been but two years in office, and during that time, by his efficient administration, the debt of the city has been decreased a quarter of a million of dollars, while the public property of the city has been greatly augmented and increased in value.

I ought not to quit Madrid without saying something of the great capital of the Spacish monerchy, the Court, as they call the city; and yet, I have seen too little to speak of it as I could wish. The outside of Madrid, however, I could wish. The outside of Madrid, however, I have seen, and that is as much as the majority of travelers at the present day see of anything.—Yet there are many native Spaniards who tell you that seeing Madrid is not seeing Spain.—Yet will be seeing Madrid is not seeing Spain.—Yet will be seen to me, "is not a Spanish city; it is French—it is inhabited by a rancovardos, people who tollow French Institute Course Wards National Madrid Spain. follow Fronch Institutes and modes of living.—
These who form the Court speak French, and when they use the language of the country, disfigure it with Gallicians. People here read

The Test of Democracy.

It will be remembered by those who have read the recent speeches of Senator Douglas on the Kansas question, that he asked Bigler, with great vehemence, "why are Democratic Senators all around me allowed to differ with the President on the Pacific Railroad, Banks, Filibustering, Tariff, &c., and to differ in peace; while because I addoor to my position, I am attacked here by men who wish to drive me out of the party for ulterior purposes of their own, and am faisely denounced by the pensioned letter-writers of pressed who sask putconage of some of the country fill those who sit in them faisely denounced by the pensioned letter-writers of pressed who sask putconage of some of the country fill those who sit in them faisely denounced by the pensioned letter-writers of pressed who sask putconage of some of the country fill those who sit in them faisely denounced by the pensioned letter-writers of pressed who sask putconage of some of the country fill those who sit in them faisely denounced by the pensioned letter-writers of pressed who sask putconage of some of the country fill those who sit in them faisely denounced by the pensioned letter-writers of the country fill those who sit in them faisely denounced by the pensioned letter-writers of the country fill the sament it, the duct of the wall in the faith so described in and down, till the well-dessed poople of the woll-dressed poople of th a and the Calle de Atocha, pour every atternoon

The Hon. Schuyler Colfax, of Indiana, writing to the South Bend Register, his paper, says that after the debate between Schuters Douglas and Bigler, in which this Equestion was put, was should come in the weather. The threat of the sky was fulfilled before we could get home, and we reached the door of our hotel in a torrent of MURAYES IN NEW YORK CITY IN 1857,—The Police Gazette publishos a list of sixty murders, which have been committed in New York city since January 1st, 1857. But one execution has taken place, that of the colored man Dorsey. Three persons convicted of capital crimes are now under sentonce of death. The Evening Post, in communiting, remarks:

A remarkable tenture in this appalling list of crime is the fact, that in a large majority of cuses no circumstraces have pinded, rosted upon parties in most cases, but these have been in some instances entirely unfounded, and in others were no bull-rights in the winter.

Yot it is not fair to deny to Madrid cortain characteristic peculiarities, even when considered in this point of view. If it be Fronch, it is so after a manner of its own, and the prevailing Gallicism is modified by the untional temperament, by old institutions and traditions, and by the climate.

The praco-pasitions.

One of the first places we were taken to see on our arrival in Madrid was the Prado. Here, beyond the pavements and yet within the gates of the capital, is a spacious pleasure ground, formed into long alloys by rows of trace, extending north and south, almost one of sight. In the midst, here tween the colorant figures of white marble, which form the tourstin of Cybole, on the north to those of the fountain of Neptune in the other day, were admitted by a man who told me that this was a special oceanion, is an area of ten or twelve acres, beat on shard and snooth as a threshing floor, by the feet of those who daily frequent it. Into these two noble streets, the finest in Madrid.

That afternoon the Archbienep of Cuba, who is on a visit to Spain, wont to preach. A series of discourses delivered by him to the men, which I am told were attended by crowded audiences, had closed a few days before, and he was now in the midst of his surpose to the woman. A lady the midst of his sermons to the woman. who attended these daily, said to me :- " He who attended these daily, ead to me:—"He proaches with great plainness and simplicity, and his words take hold of the heart. It is not by any of the tricks of oratory that he produces an effect; he awakens emotions of contrition by carnest addresses to the conscience. He is bringing the community, a part of it at least, to a sense of its errors and its duties, and in this way is doing much good. The Conan has lately k a sonse of its errors and its duties, and in this way is doing much good. The Queen has lately appointed him her confessor, though he would gladly have declined the office."

The task of confessing the Queen, I am afraid, the good man will find a little troublesome.

She is very devout, as her daily visits to the churches testify, and the rumor goes that she is very dissolute. It is easier to preach twice a day, and occasionally two hours at a time, as the Archibishop of Cuba is doing, than to manage a royal penitent of this sort.

royal penifort of this sort.

Public lectures.

Since Spain has the electric telegraph, and is beginning to build railways, it would be strange if she has no public lectures. She possesses one public lectures. She possesses one public lectures of great eminence. The other ovening I was at the house of an acquiant-ance in Madrid, when a gentleman, eminent as an advocate and as a writer for the journals, came in from attending an evening lecture of Galiano. Galiano is a pollician of that school in Spain, who desire to keep things as they are, it, in fact, they would not rather put them back to where they were at the end of the last continuity. The gentleman of whem I speak was expressing himself in the most entansistic terms of Galiano's elecution—" You should hear what he says," said the lady of the house, turning to mo; he is praising a political adversary. She then inquired of her friend what was the subtion inquired of her friend what was the subtion inquired of her friend what was the subject of the discourse. "It was the social and provided the property of the house, turning to mo; he is praising a political adversary. She then inquired of her friend what was the subject of the discourse." The Spaniards everywhere pass a great deal of their Spaniards everywhere pass a great deal of their country bears and fink. When you have a letter of introduction to a Spaniard, he does not invite you to dinner; but when he tells you that his house is yours, he means to give you free access at all proper hours. I can testify that the Spaniard are hospitable in the sense of giving you their society, and making your stay in their country pleasant, though it is not their sources.

I was several times at the house of a literary lady of Madrid, and saw there some of the most entinent men of Spain, statesmen, jurists, occlesiastice, anthore, caders of the librari party, and chiefe of the absolutists, who came and went, with almost ce little coromony as if they mot out the Prado. The artifical is something more than this; there is more dress, illumination, numbers, but the refreshments are almost as fregally dispensed. The stranger in Spain doors not find this, but is at once introduced to it, on the same footing with the natives.

THE QUEEN TAKING HES MORNING RIDSS AT SUN I flad one objection, however, to the social arrangements of Madrid; that they make the evening and cannot all is sone time among the short hours beyond midight. It was the Queen taking her early drive. This was her moving, and she was taking the morning nit at six o'clock in the afternoon, on her way to church. As the days grow shorter, the carriages passed after the lamps were lighted.

THREEL WAREA'S LIGHTS.

Mankind have long been enguiphed in darkness, as regards the frue means of securing health—ridding the human body from disease, and procerving life. The alck, under the failucious treatment of the requisir faculty, are subject to a continued practice of probabilities and uncertainties. There is nothing certain or fixed in the treat-of the sick either in the old or new school of medicine. Dr. Radway has succeeded in producing three remedies—known to the world as Radway's Ready Reiter, Renewating Resolvent and Regulator. These remedies are of only established facts, inasmuch as they have neveryet falled in their special or combired efficacy in producing fruitful and beneficial results—but, they are facts establishing as science—as the have in all cases, "when tried," succeeded in restoffing to health—and ridding the body from disease after all other medical treatment had failed—and the most skilful physicians had given up the sket as beyond the power of human means to cure—and pronounced the dreadful mandato—incurable.

Radway's Remedical science—they are been often tried,—incurable.

There is no remedy in the worldthat will work such miracilious cured in old diseases as Radways Resolvent it changes the whole human body—reproduces new and handthy bland.
